

JPA Board Meeting October 2012

JPA Finansauditi welcomed the JPA International Board meeting in Tbilisi from 11 to 13 October 2012.

Attendees came from Austria, Bulgaria, France, Germany, Georgia, Kazakhstan, Turkey, Slovakia, Ukraine and the United Kingdom.

Members of the JPA International Network and their guests, including the Board members of the Franco-Georgian Chamber of Commerce and Industry, attended a conference on the challenges of the audit profession in Georgia, led by Zurab Lalazashvili, Chairman of the Georgian Federation of Professional Accountants and Auditors.

On Thursday 11 October, there was an opportunity for tax experts to meet, reflect on international topics, compare practices and to exchange views with one another. They also considered Georgia's economic situation and investment opportunities.

The afternoon of Friday 12 October was dedicated to exploring the economic situation in Georgia.

We would like to thank the speakers for their contributions to the lively and diverse discussions:

- Macroeconomic outlook of Georgia by Dr Demuri GIORKHELIDZE, Economic advisor
- Presentation of the New Economics School by Paata SHESHEDIDZE, President of the New Economic School
- Presentation of the Banking Sector by Emzari JGERENAIA, Financial and Business Institute

The network would like to thank Giorgi Rusiashvili and the team of JPA Finansauditi for the wonderful organisation of this Board meeting and we wish them a prosperous future.
